Sunday Reflection by Fr John Thornhill sm

Great as these lessons were, however, they were only a prelude and foreshadowing of the interaction that would give an ultimate expression to the personal life of God – when ‘the Word became flesh, and we saw the glory that he has as the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth’ (Jn 1:14). Today’s reading from John’s gospel reiterates this truth: ‘God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son’. Now the mystery of God’s generous love has its full expression. The love of the Son, as he gives himself ‘that the world might be saved’, is the expression of the love of the Father himself – expressed in this text in an echo of Abraham’s anguish, when he was told, ‘Take your son, your only son; you are to offer him as a burnt offering’ (Gen 22:2). In this expression of divine compassion, the astounding superabundance of life in a Trinity of Persons finds expression; and gives us a sharing in its friendship, as ‘the love of God is poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us’ (Rom 5:5). (Today’s gospel reading is noteworthy for its reference to ‘the world’. Usually, in John’s gospel, ‘the world’ refers to humanity’s project when it is alienated from God [cf. Jn 15:19]; and God’s love towards the disciples of Jesus is what is stressed. In this text, however, ‘the world’ too is the object of God’s saving love.)

In each of us there are personal depths, mysterious depths that others can know only if we choose to make them our friends. We should not be surprised, that in the boundless life of our God there is a mystery of overflowing life that is far beyond our complete comprehension. Yet – and here we are touching the very heart of our Christian faith, and its greatness – this mystery of personal life reaches out to us, and invites us into its friendship.

We humans share the mystery of our personhood with others by expressing who we are in our interaction with them. And so it has been with the divine self-disclosure, or revelation. From the first, the God of our faith tradition has reached out to humanity with an astounding generosity that was very different from what was expected from the remote and fearful gods the peoples of the world had set up for themselves: Israel’s God was the champion of the oppressed, a God whose self-giving was expressed in a covenant relationship. Our reading from the Book of Exodus gives a moving expression to the deep lessons this covenant relationship brought to those who were open to a meeting with the God who had made them his own: ‘a God of tenderness, and compassion, slow to anger, and rich in kindness and faithfulness’.

Paul’s benediction at the end of his second letter to the Corinthians is a remarkable summary of this sharing in the Trinitarian life. It is God’s ‘Grace’ – the absolutely unmerited generosity that has shaped all God’s dealings from the beginning – that now finds an ultimate expression in all that ‘the Lord Jesus Christ’ has done. And what the Saviour has done is the revelation of ‘the love of God (the Father)’, a love that gathers us into a ‘fellowship’ that is united in the gifts of ‘the Holy Spirit’. These words of the text and its reference to ‘a holy kiss’ probably echo the liturgies of Paul’s communities. It is especially in a faith-filled liturgy that believers experience their sharing in the fellowship of the Trinitarian life.

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son

Trinity Sunday, Year A

There is a simple prayer that we say almost every day, which reminds us of the Trinity. That prayer is the Sign of the Cross.

How do I make the Sign of the Cross?

1. Using your right hand, touch your forehead and say.... (fill in the 1st speech balloon)
2. Touch your chest near your heart and say.... (fill in the 2nd speech balloon)
3. Touch your left shoulder, then your right shoulder and say.... (fill in the 3rd speech balloon)

When and where do we use the Sign of the Cross?

Because of God's love for us, he sent His Son Jesus to save those who believe. How can we return that love?

Find your way to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading

Exodus 34:4-6. 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm

(R.) Glory and praise for ever!

1. You are blest, Lord God of our fathers. (R.)
2. Blest your glorious holy name. (R.)
3. You are blest in the temple of your glory. (R.)
4. You are blest on the throne of your kingdom. (R.)
5. You are blest who gaze into the depths. (R.)
6. You are blest in the firmament of heaven. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Reflection for Young People

By Lisa-Marie Calderone Stewart

The second reading is like a greeting card from Paul. It is a note of encouragement and love. In Paul's day they don't have 'smiley faces' that say, 'Have a nice day', but Paul still cares enough to send the very best. He sends greetings and blessings in the name of God as Trinity – our Creator, our Saviour Jesus, and the Spirit they share. We share in that holy and divine Spirit whenever we greet and bless one another.

When was the last time you sent someone a greeting card that your parents didn't make you send?

When was the last time you received a card that wasn't a Christmas or birthday card?

Prayer is like a greeting card to God and from God. Greeting cards do not create love and friendship between people, but they are a channel so that feelings and thoughts can be shared and expressed more easily.

What feelings and thoughts does God express to you? How do you know?

What feelings and thoughts do you express to God? How do you do it?

Message from your Parish Priest

It is time to consider what you intend to do for Planned-Giving for FY 2020-2021 for the maintenance of our Parish church and facilities. Do consider contributing through direct debit from your bank account.

We express prayerful condolences to the families of our recently departed parishioners, Agnes John and Kevin Dear. Please remember them in your prayers.

Finally, a big Thank You to parishioners who gave time and assistance with the livestreaming of masses in the past weeks. Thank you, too, to parishioners for their cooperation in observing the COVID-19 guidelines when attending mass in church.

With prayers

Father Patrick Lim
