Scripture Commentary by Dianne Bergant CSA

followed immediately by the mention of God's holy and glorious name. God is next praised in the temple, the focal point of the religious life of the nation. Though believed to be present in the temple, God was really enthroned above the heavens. God holds sway over the depths as well. Thus God reigns over all.

The short passage from 1 Corinthians begins with the typical Pauline exhortation, followed by greetings from other Christians. Paul's exhortation is fivefold. He begins with a summons to rejoice. He then admonishes the Christians to mend their ways. The admonition throws light on the situation in the Corinthian community. He exhorts them to be of one mind, for if their differences turn into factionalism, this might cause the entire fabric of community to unravel. The final exhortation is a summons to live in the kind of peace that will enable them to experience the presence of the God. Paul ends with a Trinitarian blessing.

In the gospel reading, the extent of God's love is drawn in bold lines in two different ways. The first is the scope of divine love; the second is the price that God is willing to pay because of that love. The author maintains that God's love for the world is so deep and so magnanimous that nothing is spared for the world's salvation, not even God's only Son. God gave/sent this Son first in the incarnation and again in his saving death. This Son was truly a gift from God. However, the Son had a sacred, all-encompassing mission to perform. The world, though created good, often stands in opposition to God and, consequently, is in need of being saved. It is this sinful world that God loved (v.16); it is into this sinful world that God's only Son was sent (v.17).

The report of Moses' encounter with God is rich with covenantal language. God initiates the encounter and descends upon the mountain in a cloud that both reveals and conceals the divine presence. Revelation of the divine name YHWH (the Lord) is followed by the explanatory phrase 'merciful, gracious, slow to anger, rich in mercy, lovingkindness and truth'. This phrase, which eventually became a creedal recital (see Ps 86:15; 103:8; 145:8; Num 14:18; Joel 2:13; Nah 1:3; Neh 9:17; Jonah 4:2), is not an interpretation of the name but a description of the divine essence. In response to this spectacular revelation, Moses prostrates himself in worship. Moses admits that this is a difficult people, stiff-necked or stubborn. They do not easily follow directives. They are in need of God's mercy.

The doxology from Daniel includes the refrain: Praiseworthy and glorious above all forever! God is first praised for having been the God of the ancestors. The reference here is probably to the promises that God made to Abraham and to his family (cf. Gen 12:1-3; 17:5-8). This is

LITURGICAL FORMATION & RENEWAL 2023 PROGRAM

Pope Francis in his Apostolic Letter Desiderio Desideravi of June 2022 highlighted the need for liturgical formation.

A program of liturgical formation and renewal has been prepared for the Archdiocese. At the heart of this program of renewal, there should be a rediscovery of the richness of our Catholic faith in the Eucharist, including our belief in the real presence of Jesus Christ under the sacramental signs of bread and wine.

Four short videos have been produced to be used as part of the Liturgical Formation and Renewal program.

First Reading

Exodus 34:4-6. 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said, 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm

Dn 3:52-56. R. v.52

(R.) Glory and praise for ever!

1. You are blest, Lord God of our fathers. (R.)
Blest your glorious holy name. (R.)
2. You are blest in the temple of your glory. (R.)
You are blest on the throne of your kingdom. (R.)
3. You are blest who gaze into the depths. (R.)
You are blest in the firmament of heaven. (R.)

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Reflection for Young People

By Lisa Marie Calderone-Stewart

The second reading is like a greeting card from Paul. It is a note of encouragement and love. In Paul's day they don't have 'smiley faces' that say, 'Have a nice day', but Paul still cares enough to send the very best. He sends greetings and blessings in the name of God as Trinity – our Creator, our Saviour Jesus, and the Spirit they share. We share in that holy and divine Spirit whenever we greet and bless one another.

- When was the last time you sent someone a greeting card that your parents didn't make you send?
- When was the last time you received a card that wasn't a Christmas or birthday card?

Prayer is like a greeting card to God and from God. Greeting cards do not create love and friendship between people, but they are a channel so that feelings and thoughts can be shared and expressed more easily.

- What feelings and thoughts does God express to you? How do you know?
- What feelings and thoughts do you express to God? How do you do it?

CHILDREN'S CORNER

Find your way to the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit

There is a simple prayer that we say almost every day, which reminds us of the Trinity. That prayer is the Sign of the Cross.

How do I make the Sign of the Cross?

1. Using your right hand, touch your forehead and say.... (fill in the 1st speech balloon)
2. Touch your chest near your heart and say.... (fill in the 2nd speech balloon)
3. Touch your left shoulder, then your right shoulder and say.... (fill in the 3rd speech balloon)

When and where do we use the Sign of the Cross?
